

CUNNINGHAM TENNIS PARENT GUIDE

Hi Parents,

Welcome to the Junior Development level of our Junior Programs Pathway at Cunningham Tennis!

For players ages 11-18 this program is for all levels of play. Tennis fundamentals are taught and stressed while engaging in skill based games & point play. Progression is determined by periodic assessments from coaches and Director of Tennis considering the players overall level of commitment to tennis, competitive experience and goals.

COURT & EQUIPMENT

Your child will be playing on a 78 ft court with orange or green dot compression or regular yellow balls depending on proficiency. Racquet size up to 29”.

CLASS STRUCTURE

Each session will be structured into 4 basic components:

1. Warm-up for athletic skills development
2. Drills for tennis skills development
3. Games for individual character and team skills development
4. Wrap-Up to review the lesson learned and homework assigned

RULES

- Always bring your racquet!
- Wear comfortable clothing and sneakers.
- Bring a water bottle with you to every class.
- Parents are NOT allowed on the courts except for the last 5 minutes to briefly speak to the coach about their child's goals and progress.

PROGRAM GOALS AND THEMES

Our goal is to develop the necessary athletic, tennis, and character skills to progress to the next level in our Junior Development pathway, the Tournament Training Program.

Here are a few themes we will cover during the program:

1. Racquet & footwork skills
2. Athletic & coordination skills
3. Forehands and Backhands
4. Court coverage & movement
6. Rallying
7. Volleys & overheads
8. Serve and Return
9. Gameplay with scoring
